Alberta Goes UCP Blue

Jackie Armstrong-Homeniuk Elected as Fort Saskatchewan-Vegreville's New MLA

Emily Mailhot
 Reporter - Vegreville News Advertiser

After months of anticipation, campaigning, and door-knocking, it looks like big changes are on the horizon for Alberta and our riding, with Jason Kenney taking the reigns as Premier, and Vegreville's own Jackie Armstrong-Homeniuk holding the MLA seat in Fort Saskatchewan-Vegreville.

Albertans, regardless of party allegiances, held their breath as the votes kept coming in on Tuesday night, but poll projections followed through, especially since the province saw a record-breaking 693,000 advance votes and 223,000 vote-anywhere ballots for over 700,000. However, a steady stream of April 16 voters made
