The annual showcase for the talented Holden Junior Players opened on Friday, April 14th, with their first performance of Honker House Family Reunion, a play written by the Jr. Players' director Roger Harrison. The play continued for a weekend of performances at the Paragon Theatre in Holden.

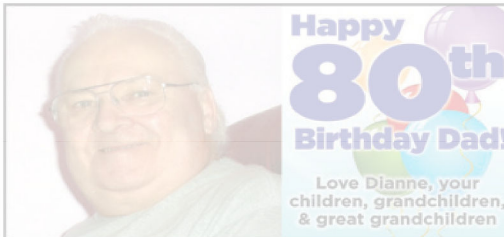

Before the performance, the ladies at the Gallery gift shop and art studio in Holden served a dinner.

The showcase opened with a video made by the young actors and actresses over the course of the year. After the video ended to much audience applause, Roger Harrison greeted the crowd.

"I would like to thank the people who contributed, with little or no benefit to themselves. VMS, Beaver County, and those who stepped in to help closer to
